How Did She Do It?

The most economical housewife—one who can pay all the necessary household expenses on a little over $1.50 a week—has been brought to light through an alimony suit in Brooklyn court. Mrs. Irene Schröder of Staten Island tells in her appeal how she ran her husband's home successfully during thirty-five weeks for $55. That was hard enough to do, she adds, but she suggests her spouse reached the limit at their parting when he told her that she was no wife for a poor man.

Names Submitted.

Two election commissioners will be chosen from these lists:

The Democrats named W. J. McGee, James West, E. H. Higgins, P. E. Warfield and Dr. G. W. Lovan.

The Republicans named O. H. Anderson, Edgar Renshaw, R. J. Carothers, Sr., W. T. Fowler and W. R. Wicks.

One from each of these lists and Sheriff Johnson will make up the county board.

Individual Troughs.

Now it is the "common drinking cup" for horses that is a menace and must be done away with. An investigation by the bureau of municipal research in New York shows that of the 9,000 horses that died in Manhattan last year from glanders and other communicable diseases a large proportion imbibed the deadly germs from the common watering trough.

Dr. Bruner For Wilson.

When Dr. Ben Bruner, former Secretary of State, decided that he would support Woodrow Wilson for President, the Republican party lost one of its best stump speakers and one of its ablest men.

A Canadian Tragedy.

Mayor R. L. Hood of Lanigan, Sask., was drowned in Walrus lake Monday while saving the life of Miss Esie McFarlane, to whom he was to have been married on Wednesday. The young woman was rescued.

One Battleship.

Democrats of the House in caucus agreed by a vote of 95 to 11 to permit battleship champions to vote for one new warship.
